

Save the date

61.st FITCE International Congress

Rome, September 29 – 30, 2022

First Announcement

Organized by

In collaboration with

Congress Framework

National and inter-national cloud, data security, ultra-wideband access, edge computing, legal aspects, recovery and resilience plans, research programs.

Track 1 – Communications and Remote Sensing

(Networks, Systems, Channels, Signals, Space applications, 5G-6G Mobile, Quantum communications)

Track 2 – Electromagnetic Fields

(Antennas, Millimeter waves, Electromagnetic compatibility, Emf exposition limits, Photonics)

Track 3 - Industrial Technology

(Products, Services, Manufacturers, Operators, Regulation, Competencies and skills)

Papers submitted in Track 1 and Track 2 will be peer reviewed and, if accepted, expected to be included in IEEE Xplore. First submissions will be due on March 2022 according to proper instructions (<https://convegni.aeit.it/fitce2022>)

Papers submitted in Track 3 will be accepted provided that at least one of the authors subscribes the participation fee. Papers in Track 3 will not be considered for IEEE Xplore.

The Congress will be held both in presence and on-line (The modalities of the event may be reviewed based on the pandemic situation)

Touristic programs will be organized for accompanying persons.